Grammar: Apostrophe of Possession

Here are the rules for the use of apostrophes of possession.

Single noun	Plural Noun
Noun doesn't end in 's' then add an apostrophe and an 's'. e.g. Sam owns a dog. ➡ Sam's dog.	Noun doesn't end in 's' then add an apostrophe and an 's'. e.g. The children have a dog. ➡ The children's dog.
Noun ends in 's' then add an apostrophe and an 's'. e.g. Ross owns a dog. ➡ Ross's dog. Paris has a tower. ➡ Paris's tower	Noun ends in 's' then add an apostrophe but don't add an 's'. e.g. The babies have rattles. ➡ The babies' rattles.

Rewrite these sentences using apostrophes.

The fishes water was cleaned.

We mended Grans window.

Mr Thomass classroom is untidy.

Liams mum is a doctor.

My schools playtime is in the morning.

The womens meeting is postponed.

The thieves plans were devious.

My classs assembly is on Thursday.

Answers:

The fishes' water was cleaned.

We mended Gran's window.

Mr Thomas's classroom is untidy.

Liam's mum is a doctor.

My school's playtime is in the morning.

The women's meeting is postponed.

The thieves' plans were devious.

My class's assembly is on Thursday.