Grammar: Prepositions

Prepositions are words that show the link between two things.

They could be links in:

- Time — I had breakfast before school.
- Space or place — Put the jigsaw in the box
- In another way — This cake is for Gran.

BBC Bitesize helps us to understand how this works in a sentence.
https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/topics/zwwp8mn/articles/zw38srd

Wind in the Willows
By Kenneth Grahame

Can you find the 12 prepositions in the paragraph below

Mr Toad travelled by boat up the river towards Otter's house. Sitting under the branches of a tree across the river, Mr Toad discovered his friends having a picnic. Mole, Badger and Otter sat happily on the river bank as Mr Toad angled his boat through the water to greet them. After securing his craft, he jumped upon the bank to join his friends. Badger offered him a piece of pie before Otter handed him a glass of ginger ale to drink. There was much joy between the friends, sharing a lovely afternoon alongside the river bank.

Answers:

Mr Toad travelled by boat up the river towards Otter's house. Sitting under the branches of a tree across the river, Mr Toad discovered his friends having a picnic. Mole, Badger and Otter sat happily on the river bank as Mr Toad angled his boat through the water to greet them. After securing his craft, he jumped upon the bank to join his friends. Badger offered him a piece of pie before Otter handed him a glass of ginger ale to drink. There was much joy between the friends, sharing a lovely afternoon alongside the river bank.