

Listen to Miss Pidcock reading 'Giraffes can't dance' by Giles Andreae and Guy Parker-Rees. Ask a grown up to read the questions to you and you can tell them the answers. Then have a go at the activity.

1. What was Gerald very good at?
2. The cricket describes the grass as 'swaying.' What does this mean?
3. How do you think Gerald felt when the animals laughed at him?
4. What instrument did the cricket play?
5. Point to the author and illustrator's names on the cover of the book.

Now match the animals with their style of dance...

warthogs

Rock and roll

rhinos

Tango

lions

Waltz

What dance do you think a zebra would do?
