

Sarah Bright

I have taught music in primary and secondary schools across Warwickshire and Leicestershire for over 27 years.

As a musical director for over 28 shows on behalf of Concordia AOS, I have established a reputation as a hardworking professional with the highest of standards.

I can play a multitude of instruments and have performed to audiences around the world.

When not teaching, coaching or mentoring, I spend my free time with my daughter Daisy in sunny Leicestershire!