

Maths worksheet 7 - Making equal groups by sharing

In order to support this learning, you may want to go into the garden and create your own collection of leaves to practically split into groups. If you can't get leaves any collection of objects will work for this task e.g. cubes, counters, pasta etc.

Can you share the leaves equally between the caterpillars?
Write the number of leaves each caterpillar needs in each box.

