

Worksheet 1

Our topic this term would have been The Great Fire of London, and we would have been spending time looking at scenes of the fire. Can you look at this scene and write a description of what you can see?

Try to think of as many adjectives as you can before you begin, then work to put them into sentences - don't forget that capital letter and full stop!