

Your task is to draw a map of the island that the boy and his tiger have discovered.

Think about:

Does it all look like this?

Are there different areas?

Is it safe?

What can he see or hear?

Are there others living on the island?

Once you have drawn your map, decide where you would set up camp and explain why you have chosen this location.