

Worksheet 2

Year 3

Look at these examples of acrostic poems. Can you remember when we wrote one about the Stone Age?

Your task is to write an acrostic poem. There is a template on the next page to use or you can think of your own word. You could write one for your own name with lines written all about you.

Spring is here
Pretty flowers grow
Robins come out more
I feed the birds
New animals are born
Got to find Easter eggs

Luminous in the night sky
Igniting the bright flames of the bonfire
Glistening in sparkling fireworks
Heating up my face, don't stand too close
Toffee apples, sticky and delicious

Take turns with supplies.
Exchange ideas.
Always stay on task.
Make an effort to try.
Wait for your turn to share.
Offer to help your team.
Respect others' opinions.
Keept working to finish the task.

Respect your world,
Everyone be kind to nature,
Smile back at people,
Pay attention,
Excellent work,
Consider others,
Treasure plants and animals
as very special things.

Paper is ready.
Eraser on the end.
Need a sharpener now.
Colour of the night.
I use it every day.
Let me be creative.

Suddenly Spring is here.
Flowers Push up through the cold ground.
Streams Run cold with melted snow.
Birds sing In chorus.
Nothing beats a Nice spring day.
After a lon G hard winter!

By: Tammy Worcester

The page features a light blue background with a decorative border of yellow sunflowers and green stems. A central white rectangular area contains the word 'SPRING' written vertically in large, bold, black capital letters. To the right of each letter are horizontal lines for writing. At the bottom center, there is a small logo for 'twinkl' and the website address 'visit twinkl.com'.

S

P

R

I

N

G