

Marshmallow

This week, your challenge is to write a short story called: Marshmallow.

You have two options:

- 1) You can watch the short video clip (link below)
- 2) You can use the picture below.

Whichever you choose is up to you. We would like you write a story about the clip or the setting, to describe what is happening. You can decide whether or not you wish to use the same ending as the video clip or take the action in another direction altogether.

If you are using the picture then you can decide what happens. There is no right or wrong outcome, it is whatever you want to happen!

There is a Powerpoint link for this challenge that gives you some ideas that you can use to help develop your writing.

For those of you who want to use the video then the clip is here:

For those of you who want to use the picture, the image is here:

Think about all of the things that you can see....but also the things that you cannot see-what expression do you think the boy has on his face? Excitement? Fear? Surprise? Think about the time of day, the surroundings, and the 5 senses.
