

School Uniform

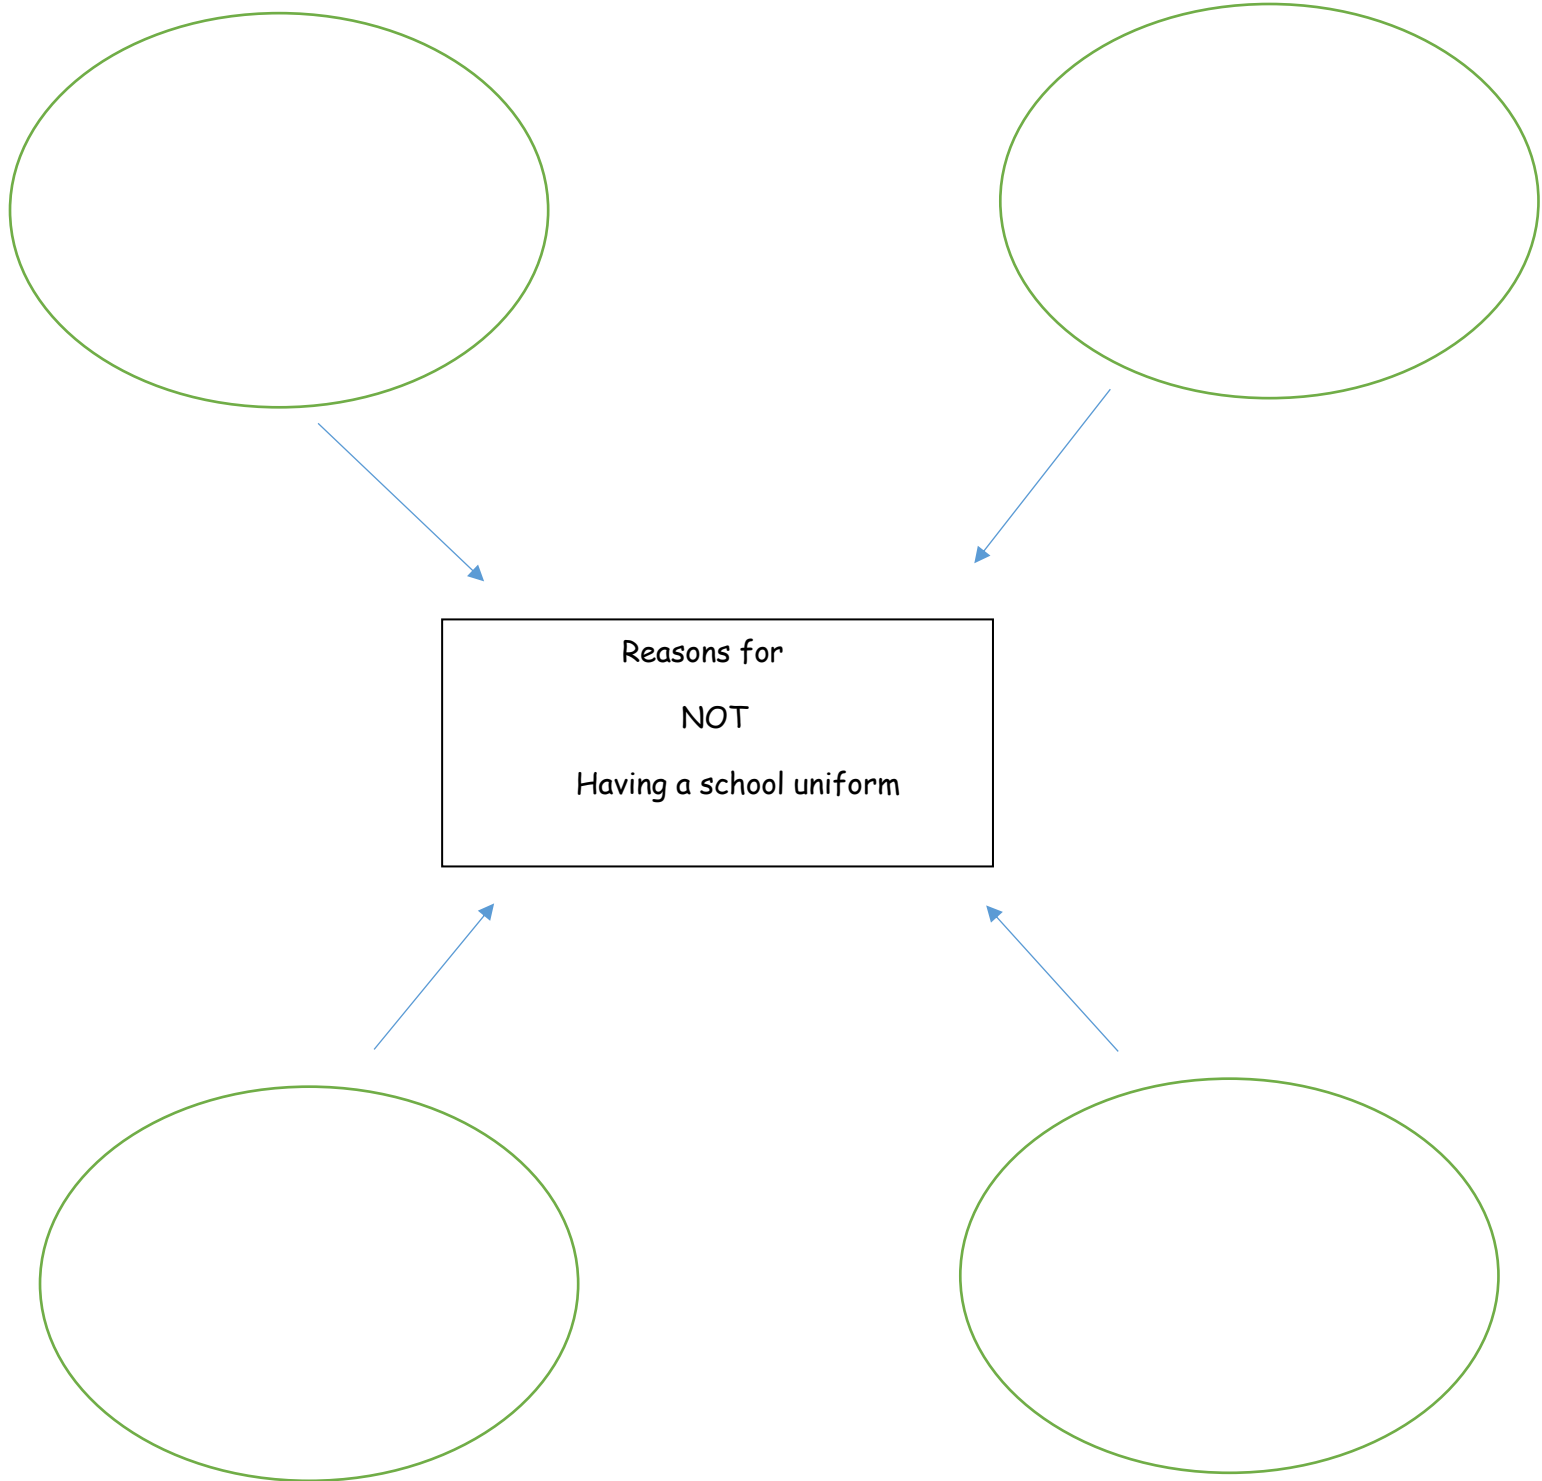

Here is a piece of persuasive writing suggesting the point of view that school uniform is very important.

Your task is to create a piece of persuasive writing that argues against having school uniform. You can present this as leaflet or as a series of paragraphs. Remember to leave a line between each paragraph and make sure that each one contains a separate point that you are making. You will also need to have an introduction and summary. Use subheadings and topic sentences too to link to the point you are making.

It is vital that we keep school uniform and maintain a tradition that has been in existence for years. It is traditions like these which make the British educational system the envy of the world! School uniform brings discipline, encourages good behaviour and sets standards which will ensure pupils give of their best. The garments are simple, easily replaced and kept clean.

They prevent 'Mr Rich's' son from becoming the hero just because he has the right designer label. School uniform is a way of giving everyone the same chance, the same opportunity, of making everyone equal. Whatever happens school uniform must stay!
